Foreword

The aspiration of the 1968 Annual Staff is to present to the students, administration, and faculty an overview of that which has occurred within a span of five years, as well as the many faults that go to make up life at George Washington Carver High. It is the duty of the staff to select, describe, and illustrate the wonderful and unique experiences which will long be remembered and cherished in the hearts of all who glance back over these pages.

Life at Carver is revealed through its people, a miscellaneous assortment of personalities--the brilliant, the cheerful, the beautiful, the athletic, the leader, the popular, the radical, the successful, and all types.

The staff hopes that this production will bring pleasure to those who view it, for we derived pleasure in trying to piece together a significant and interesting story of life with the "Trojans".

The Annual Staff

Dedication

The 1968 Senior Class proudly and with deep appreciation dedicates this volume to Mrs. Doris L. Robinson for her never-tiring willingness to help students--academically and otherwise through her advising, her exemplification of professional competence, and her devoted dedication to Carver and education.

She hails from Montgomery, Alabama. Her academic standings are as follows: She received a B. S. degree from Alabama State Teacher's College where she majored in Social Studies and English. Presently, she is serving as sponsor of the class of '68.

To further the staff's dedication choice, we take these lines from Matthew Arnold's "Rugby Chapel" which are helpful, but still inadequate.

If in the paths of the world
Stones might have wounded thy feet,
Toll or dejection have tried
Thy spirit, or that we saw
Nothing--to us thou wast still
Cheerful, and helpful, and firm!

Languor is not in your heart
Weakness is not in your word,
Weariness not on your brow.

Editor's Message

On behalf of the 1968 Trojan annual staff, I take great pride and pleasure in expressing my deepest gratitude and appreciation for having been chosen to serve in the production and publication of this yearbook.

In the years ahead, as you browse through this yearbook and relive the happy and ever lasting memories of schoolmates, teachers, and events that have highlighted your memories and desires to accomplish the worthwhile things in life and to live up to the best that is within you.

May your life echo the words of the prayer St. Francis of Assisi:

"Lord make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy;
Oh, Divine Master, grant that I may seek not so much to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned.
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life."

Also I wish for you, all the success to which you are entitled, and all the happiness and pleasures that the life you live justifies. Keep looking up, out, and forward, life is just an employer who will pay no more than you earn!

Editor-in-Chief

The period extending from September 1963 through June 1968 witnesses many occurrences which have a particular effect on the members of our class. We, the annual staff have worked toward portraying those phases which cannot be absolutely classed academic or highly intellectual--but phases which form a vital part of high school life. The day-by-day activities have been so arranged so that in later years as we reminisce, we can relive those exciting and rewarding days at Carver High.

We hope that this volume presents these past years' phases in a manner that captures "that old Trojan Spirit" which accompanies the students' endeavors to hold aloft that prized "torch of knowledge."

In Memoriam

ARTHUR HILL JOHNSON

There must be a reason we can't see,
 There must be a reason why,
 A reason that we must take "on faith,"
 As we do the sun on high ...
 There must be an answer why it is
 Someone who enjoyed life so,
 Someone who is so dear to us,
 Suddenly has to go ...
 Life is a journey, so we are told,
 For some, long ... for others, brief,
 A journey on which we all find joy
 Mingled with sadness and grief ...
 Try to remember the joy today,
 However hard it may be,
 And trust you'll find comfort
 When you know
 The reason you now can't see.

Our Principal Mr. Homer L. Hines

To The Class Of 1968:

It is a pleasure for us to greet you, the members of the Class of 1968, as you approach your graduation. Although it will bring to an end our formal associations in school, there will be many very pleasant thoughts left with us as you move out to new and wider experiences. Now to you, it can be said. The real and important lessons for life are not those that are generally confined to textbooks. Nor do the real tests of life come during the prescribed two hour examination period. Your big lessons and your important tests lie before you. How well will you be able to face the realities of life? We sincerely hope that your stay with us has helped to equip you with skills and attitudes necessary for an ever changing society. Not least among these we hope is a dedication and commitment to the high ideals of integrity of character.

As you move out toward the future with its uncertainties, seemingly there is a thought for the Class of 1968 in William Ernest Henley's Invictus:

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the Pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not sinned nor cried aloud,
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds, and shall find me, unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate;
I am the captain of my soul.

Again we extend the best wishes of our staff, student body, and entire community to the Class of 1968.

In Appreciation

We, the members of the annual staff wish to express our sincere appreciation to those members of the faculty and senior class who have helped us tremendously in preparing this book. These people deserve so much of the credit for the completion of our annual. We are grateful for their help and we shall treasure it as we do that of others who contributed to its completion.

Our Coach And Captains

Head Coach - MR. WARREN B. COLEMAN
Captains - HENRY COLES and JAMES JONES

The 1967 football team started off on what some consider a sour note, losing four out of their first five games, but as the season progressed they proved that they could learn through losing and still come back a winner.

To the Seniors who are leaving they need not bow their heads because they played the game as a true sportsman should by the rules and with determination. What else can we ask?

I am hoping that the preparation they received will be a carry over into adult life.

VA. ELECTRIC & POWER CO.

Already, one half of the world's supply of electricity is generated in the United States. And the demand continues to grow. How will it be met? Through the energy and resourcefulness of America's independent electric companies. Companies that plan ahead to stay ahead of the needs of tomorrow.

And she started as an operator.

Charlene Workman went from operator to instructor,
to supervisor and then grew chief operator at CAP.
and that's more enough to be placed with a job.
Big trees what she is doing. "The line of work with other young women. The operator gets when you work in administration. And I found all of an order the line that we're helping people and performing a credit, credit service. It's very rewarding.
Why don't you start as an operator for CAP.
You'll be off to a good start."
We need experienced operators.
